The Extraterrestrial

[Verse 1]
From a planet you don't know
A place where you'll never go
I came with a map in my head
And dust on my shoes instead

I am smart, clever, and a bit cunning
I read your faces while the room keeps running
Yet my body is weak and a frail physique
So I move like a secret you barely speak

[Pre-Chorus]
I watch your kind from the edge of the crowd
Learning your habits, quiet and loud
I keep my hands in the pockets of night
Waiting on the signal, waiting on the light

[Chorus]
I'm the one from far away
I'm the one who won't stay
Weak body, sharp mind
Watching your world unwind

I'm the one from far away (far away)
I'm the one who won't stay (won't stay)
Till my kind calls my name
Or comes to take me away

[Verse 2]
I count the cracks in the ceiling tile
I learn your smiles, I borrow your style
Never too near, never too bare
Just a shadow with a patient stare

Spending time just observing your kind
Tucking your stories into my mind
I don't belong, but I don't pretend
I'm only here till the message arrives again

[Pre-Chorus]
I hear the hush before the call
A vibration climbing through it all
If the door opens, I'll be gone
If it stays shut, I'll keep on

[Chorus]
I'm the one from far away
I'm the one who won't stay
Weak body, sharp mind
Watching your world unwind

I'm the one from far away (far away)
I'm the one who won't stay (won't stay)
Till my kind calls my name
Or comes to take me away

[Bridge]
Maybe you think I'm made of stone
But I get tired of being alone
I know your rain, I know your days
I know how longing changes shape

So if I vanish, don't ask why
Some of us are built to pass you by
Some of us wait with a quiet ache
For the pull that only our own can make

[Chorus]
I'm the one from far away
I'm the one who won't stay
Weak body, sharp mind
Watching your world unwind

I'm the one from far away (far away)
I'm the one who won't stay (won't stay)
Till my kind calls my name
Or comes to take me away
